Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Eva Galuska and the Christmas Carp is a magical Christmas story told by Jozef Mieszko about his own life. He is a successful young man who has it all-a beautiful golden-haired wife, two young sons who worship him, a rewarding career, and a home with great equity-a fairytale, castle-like brownstone on Chicago's trendy Gold Coast. Jozef's parents, first generation Polish immigrants, achieved the American dream with sacrifice, tenacity, and hard work, and they own and operate an Old World-style Polish bakery and delicatessen. Their store is located in the heart of Bucktown, an old Polish neighborhood near St. Mary's of the Angels Catholic Church, one of Chicago's actual historical landmarks, known for its spectacular golden dome, its glorious rooftop angels, and its mysterious blue light in the cupola that can be glimpsed from the Kennedy Expressway. Even though Jozef is proud of his family heritage and he enjoys helping his parents at their store, he realizes he is not a people person like his father, and he chooses a career as a computer programmer, rather than pursuing the family business-as his father puts it, Jozef prefers to lose his eyesight to blue-screened elektronika. A few days before Christmas, Jozef makes a routine stop at his parents store on his way home from work and he runs into Eva Galuska, a strikingly beautiful, seductive woman, who is a friend of his family. Eva is a talented seamstress who has always seemed breath-taking and mysterious, but after their brief, flirtatious encounter in his father's store, Jozef finds himself unexpectedly attracted to her and cannot get her out of his mind. This unexpected lust leads...
