Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memoir of George Emerson In the town of Wells, Maine (then a part of Massachusetts), Sept.12, 1797, George B.Emerson was born; and in March, 1881, at the house of his son-in-law, Hon. John Lowell, at Chestnut Hill, Brookline, he died, at the advanced age of eighty-four. His father was an able physician, a graduate of Harvard, a man of uncommon ability, with scholarly tastes and acquirements. Beloved and respected, he not only had a wide professional practice, but he made the schools a special object of his care. In the choice and appointment of teachers he was consulted, and as a visitor of the district schools his face was familiar, while his counsel and encouragement were always welcome. He had the right word both for parents and pupils, and exerted a beneficent influence wherever he went. Mr. Emersons grandfather was a clergyman in Hollis, New Hampshire, and he not only was a very acceptable preacher, but he was widely known through all the county of Hillsborough for the pre-eminent skill with which he fitted young men for college. Thus the rare gift of teaching seemed to have been transmitted from generation to generation. As an inherited quality it had come down from father to son, not evidently wearing itself out, but gaining, with time, fresh impulse and inspiration. Mr. Emersons boyhood had nothing in it of special excitement. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
