What if everyday encounters are as instructive as the latest Fortune 500 company fad, a top university certificate, or a weekend retreat with a popular guru? They are. What if, instead of spending time away from your family, you could develop your leadership by spending time WITH them? You can. Everyday encounters--rich in frustration, investment, humor, opportunity and reward--offer a refining crucible for leadership. Although executive leadership is the domain of a select few, opportunities to lead at local levels are virtually endless regardless of title or position in life. With the heart of a parent and the probing questions of an executive coach, author Stosh D. Walsh shares 50 stories from everyday life, and offers practical insights to inspire growth in leaders everywhere.
