Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At a posh Victorian home in San Francisco s exclusive Pacific Heights, Kelly Myers attends a political fundraiser and meets the powerful executive Larry Townsend. The two of them begin to date; and later, they fall in love and make plans for their wedding and a honeymoon in Acapulco. The wedding ceremony is dream-like perfection. For Larry, however, trouble intrudes in the form of an uninvited wedding guest who, he s certain, has been stalking him. During the reception Larry confides to his attorney that he s been the victim of harassment and intimidation in a plot to derail his efforts to break away from a business venture that is outside the law. He soon realizes he is a marked man. On their honeymoon Larry goes scuba diving alone and does not return. A search locates Larry s boat and equipment and he is presumed drowned. Kelly gradually learns of the dark side emerging from Larry s past. She learns of his participation in an illegal enterprise and that he faked his death and is alive. Kelly now questions her husband s integrity and character. Although Kelly hasn t stopped loving Larry, their situation cannot be resolved simply. Through a series of deceptions, death, and betrayal, they learn about lust and greed in the underworld, and soon realize they must join together in a powerful fight to stay alive and keep their love intact.
