Brittany, Hope, Shelly, Beth and Lindsay are headed up north for a ski trip to celebrate their high school graduation. There are laughs and good fun at every turn until the girls swerve onto an icy lake. The ice cracks and Lindsay disappears below the surface, never to be found again. Five years later, the girls decide to commemorate Lindsay's death by visiting the ski resort again. It starts off well with laughs of days gone past as the girls catch up on what has been going on with their lives. But when Beth finds Lindsay's old necklace in Brittany's belongings, she begins to get suspicious. Soon, each girl begins to air their grievances on what really happened that day. And when a fire starts in their cabin, each of the young women find their own worst fears realized. Lindsay's death was not an accident. She was murdered. But by whom?.
