

The Yellow-lighted Bookshop (Hardback)

By Lewis Buzbee

Graywolf Press,U.S., United States, 2006. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 180 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. "I cannot remember when I read a book with such delight." Paul Yamazaki, City Lights Bookstore November, a dark, rainy Tuesday, late afternoon. This is my ideal time to be in a bookstore. The shortened light of the afternoon and the idleness and hush of the hour gather everything close, the shelves and the books and the few other customers who graze head-bent in the narrow aisles. Ive come to find a book. In The Yellow-Lighted Bookshop, Buzbee, a former bookseller and sales representative, celebrates the unique experience of the bookstore the smell and touch of books, getting lost in the deep canyons of shelves, and the silent community of readers. He shares his passion for books, which began with ordering through The Weekly Reader in grade school. Interwoven throughout is a fascinating historical account of the booksellers trade from the great Alexandria library with an estimated one million papyrus scrolls to Sylvia Beachs famous Paris bookstore, Shakespeare and Company, which led to the extraordinary effort to publish and sell James Joyces Ulysses during the 1920s. Rich with anecdotes, The Yellow-Lighted Bookshop is the perfect...
