Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Who doesn't like to travel? Traveling the world opens new vistas and experiences to all who undertake it. But when roaming abroad, to make the trip more pleasurable and successful, an in-depth knowledge of do's and don'ts allows trekkers to avert mishaps and problems. In this information-packed book, Have Backpack Will Travel, the author provides detailed information in numerous critical areas related to seeing the world as a backpacker. The author draws from many trips abroad, covering the many fine points and concerns that need to be addressed before and during a trip. From obtaining a passport, knowing which shots are required, how and what to pack, to finding your way around, the book embraces particulars any traveler must know. Further areas include the pros and cons of driving, obtaining traveler's insurance, safety precautions as well as a section on general tips and helpful hints. These and many other topics can be found in the pages of this how-to guide. Using a backpack as a suitcase sets a person apart immediately from those who choose to go the hotel and tour group route. Oftentimes, backpackers are more independent, usually more adventurous and definitely more concerned about watching every dollar spent. Therefore, budgeting and ways to keep spending to a minimum are a constant theme. Whether you are a first-time traveler or one who has been abroad on numerous occasions, the information provided can be helpful to you. Purchasing a copy of Have Backpack Will Travel will prove to be a wise investment.
