She s married to her college sweetheart, has three great kids, a rewarding career, and wonderful friends. But beneath the appearances, Sylvia is restless. She loves her husband, but wants to see more of the world than their peaceful Michigan town. For years, she s dreamed of the interesting places she wants to visit. Now, their youngest child is grown, and Sylvia is ready for adventure. Left a penniless orphan, David Miller promised himself his family would nev-er know the same humiliation. For twenty-six years, he and Sylvia have lived frugally, saving for the future. Now, Dave is on the brink of a promotion that will ensure their financial security, but Sylvia wants him to retire and travel with her. When Dave refuses, Sylvia decides to go alone. But it s a decision that could cost them much more than money.
