Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The FBI s Ten Most Wanted Fugitives - Federal Bureau of Investigation. Includes a Chronological Listing of The FBI s Ten Most Wanted Fugitives March 14, 1950 - March 1, 2010. Gone are the days when Top Ten posters could be found in post offices. Since 1996, Top Ten posters have appeared on the FBI s Internet site, allowing the FBI to extend its reach across domestic and international borders and obtain worldwide public assistance tracking these fugitives. Traditional media outlets, such as radio programs, television shows, and printed publications provide additional publicity for the fugitives on the list. However, with the increased use of electronic and digital technology, the FBI has turned to some nontraditional and cutting-edge techniques to publicize the fugitives on the Top Ten list. Digital outdoor billboards appearing throughout the United States now feature images of these individuals. The FBI also has a Facebook page and a Twitter account where friends and followers can instantly receive information about the latest fugitives on the list. The weekly Wanted by the FBI podcast, FBI widgets, and a cell phone application all allow the public to download the latest fugitive information at the touch of a button. As technology advances, the FBI intends to keep pace and continue using it as much as possible to profile fugitives and engage the public s help in locating them.
